DEFINITIONS

The Landlord: The person or persons owning an interest in the Property which gives the right to possession of it when this Tenancy ends, and anyone who later owns the Property. Where this contract provides that the Landlord may or may not do something, it is inferred that someone acting on behalf of the Landlord may or may not also do that thing.

The Tenant: The person or persons entitled to possession of the Property under this Agreement.

The Landlord's Agent: Buraq Estates of Buraq Estates, 314 Wilmslow Road, Fallowfield, Manchester, M14 6XQ, or any person or company who later takes over the rights and obligations of the Landlord's Agent.

The Property: The Property which has been agreed to be let including any parts of the exterior forming part of the let (e.g. gardens, paths, fences, boundaries or outbuildings). Where the Property is a flat or forms only part of a building, the letting includes the use, with others, of communal access ways, gardens and other similar facilities to which the Landlord is entitled under the terms of his Lease.

The Lease (if applicable): The Lease under which the Landlord holds the Property. The obligations set out in the Head Lease will bind the Tenant provided the Tenant has been given notice of them.

The Contents: The Landlord's furniture, furnishings, fixtures, fittings and effects including sanitary ware, floor ceiling and wall coverings, decorative features, white goods and other equipment specified in the Inventory.

The Inventory of Contents and Schedule of Condition ("the Inventory"): The Inventory means the document prepared by the Landlord, the Landlord's Agent or an inventory clerk detailing the Contents, the decor and condition of the Property generally. The Inventory may be relied upon at the end of the Tenancy in assessing damage or compensation for damage (over and above fair wear and tear) and so should be checked carefully at the start of the Tenancy. "The Inventory" may refer to either the check-in or check-out of the Property, as context suggests.

Fair wear and tear: Loss, damage or depreciation that naturally and inevitably occurs from reasonable and ordinary use or exposure, or ageing.

Emergency: Where there is a risk of damage to the fabric of the Property, neighbouring properties, or to life.

The Tenancy: The Initial Fixed Term, plus any extension or continuation or any periodic tenancy arising after expiry of the original term.

Joint & Several Liability: If the Tenant consists of more than one person, their actions and obligations under this Agreement shall be joint and several in all respects which means that each Tenant is wholly responsible for all Tenant obligations and sums due under this Agreement, not just a proportionate part. It also means that the Guarantor (if applicable) will be liable with the Tenant to pay all rent and any debt arising from any breach of this Agreement until all debt is paid in full.

Interpretation: Words importing the singular number include the plural number and vice versa. Words importing the masculine gender only include the feminine gender and vice versa.

Working day means any day excluding a Saturday, Sunday or a Bank Holiday.

The Tenant and the Landlord agree that the laws of England and Wales shall apply to this Agreement.
